

Basic Features of Indian Economy

① Agro-Based Economy :-

The Indian Economy is absolutely agro based economy. Close around 14.2% of Indian GDP is contributed by farming and unified areas, while 53% of the total population of the nation relies on the horticulture sector.

② Decline in capital formation :-

There is a tremendous decrease in Gross domestic capital contrasted with the earlier years.

③ Overpopulation :-

Overpopulation is one of the main pressing issues of the Indian economy. The number of inhabitants in India gets expanded by around 20% in every decade consistently. Around 17.5% of the total population is owned by India.

④ Poor infrastructural Development :-

According to a recent report, around 25% of Indian families can't acquire electricity, and 97 million people can't acquire safe drinking water.

⑤

Endless loop of Poverty :-

The endless loop of neediness or poverty traps these types of developing countries.

⑥

Obsolete Technology :-

India is a labour intensive nation, so there is an absence of innovation and modern machinery.

⑦

Low per capita income :-

The per capita P.C. of India is considerably less than that of the other developing nations.

⑧

Backward society :-

Indian social orders are caught in the scourge of communalism, male dominated society, odd notions; caste system framework and so forth.