

Date
15/02/2025

B.Com Part III

* Essentials characteristics of an ideal costing system:

① Accuracy -

Provide accurate and reliable cost data to support decision-making.

② Relevance -

Provide relevant cost information that is useful for decision-making and planning.

③ Timeliness -

Provide cost information in a timely manner to support decision-making and planning.

④ Consistency -

Use consistent methods and procedures to ensure that cost data is comparable over time.

⑤ Flexibility -

Be able to adapt to changes in the organization, industry or market.

⑥ Simplicity -

Be easy to understand and use, with minimal complexity.

⑦ Cost Effectiveness -

Be cost-effective and provide value for the resource used.